College Fair & Auditions with up to 60 colleges
this October, from the safety of your own home!

Providing a much-needed service to the dance industry and to high school students, DTCB offers talented young dancers the opportunity to connect directly with renowned faculty from up to 60 colleges internationally.

After 10 years of building relationships with college recruiters, DTCB remains a trusted institution designed to empower and inform college-bound dancers with relevant skills needed to succeed in college and in their exciting careers beyond. DTCB College Fair and education Panels help students fully explore college dance opportunities and assists them in navigating the college admissions process. Graduating seniors are eligible for admissions and scholarship opportunities through DTCB Auditions.

Save valuable time and resources, and kick off your college journey with confidence!
